18 Sir:

19 RESPONSIVE TO THE OFFICE ACTION OF MARCH 10, 2004
20

21 Dear Ms. Yip:

22 In view of an obviously unintentional error in comprehension of the effective
23 dates of certain rule changes, I am writing to you to withdraw the most recent office
24 action wherein you noted that our amendment dated 7-29-03 was not in compliance
25 with 37 CFR 1.121(c). Your office action in paragraph 2 states that amendments 26 filed after 7-29-03 need to be in a particular format. I hasten to call your attention to 27 the sheet issued by the PTO, copy enclosed, which states that the effective date for 28 the rule change is 7-30-03. I believe therefore that since you acknowledge that our 29 amendment is dated 7-29-03 that we are in compliance with the rule for formatting
30 that was in effect on 7-29-03.

31 Please note that I am responding to you in this letter type format purposely,
32 as a result of a telephonic interview with Lana Mai your immediate supervisor.
33 Please thank her for her courtesy.

1 I further call your attention to another problem that arose with respect to 2 dates. In your office action of 2-12-03 you indicate that you are responding to our 3 amendment dated 10-1-02. The actual amendment was dated 6-11-02.

4 I now interrupt my letter to thank you for the examiner initiated telephone call
5 at 5:55est. We now agree that claim 1 was canceled and that claim 9 and all claims
6 dependent on claim 1 shall now be dependent on claim 9 now new claim 1.

7 We look forward to an early allowance. The patience and efforts of the 8 examiner are acknowledged. Authority is hereby given to the examiner to modify the claim set currently in place as to format in order to satisfy her 9 interpretation of what the format should be. A duplicate copy of the previous 10 amendment but with a minor change that claim 1 has been canceled and claim
11 9 is the new claim 1. If there are any issues a telephonic reply to counsel is 12 requested.

14
15 Respectfully submitted,
